Worthless Nostrums.

Postmaster General Payne yesterday gave out a statement regarding the attitude of the department toward worthless nostrums and the newspaper publication of obscene advertisements. It was ex-plained that the department had no inplained that the department had no in-tention of entering on a crusads against patent medicines or of establishing a censorship upon advertisements printed in newspapers, but simply aimed to cor-rect abuses in cases of obscenity and fraud as required by law. A number of cases have been presented to the Attorney General in which so-called cures were complained of as being worthless, as well complained of as being worthless, as well as the literature of the company selling the article being obscene. Analyses of these sa-called remedies developed the fact that in most instances the ingredients were simply starch and sugar. In dients were simply starch and sugar. In a number of instances the pills and drugs contained ingredients injurious to the system and forbidden by law to be sold. It having thus appeared that these companies were defrauding the public by means of false and fraudulent representations. tations made through the mails, the issuance of fraud orders was recommended to the Postmaster General, and accord-ingly issued by him. No action has been contemplated by the department save in these cases of obscenity and fraud.

Triumphs of Modern Surgery. Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antisentic dessines are applied to promote septic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F.
